Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was backing out of a parking space at a grocery store in Houston, Texas, moving slowly, when the rear of my car was struck by another vehicle coming down the aisle. Neither of us saw the other in time, and the impact was enough to jolt me forward against the seatbelt. Since then I have explained what happened the same way to the adjuster, to the officer who came to the scene, and to my doctor: the collision happened in the lot, and my right shoulder was the part that took the force. I am the named driver on this policy and I was the one operating the vehicle at the time. The shoulder has been sore and stiff since, making it hard to lift my arm above my head or reach across my body. I am still getting treatment and will provide records as they become available.
