|---|---|
| Claim number: | C-1271 |
| Claimant: | Jeffrey Esparza |
| Adjuster: | Alison Sweeney |

January 6, 2025
First notice of loss received from the insured's agent reporting a side impact at a controlled intersection, with the claimant's vehicle struck on the driver's side. The claimant has retained counsel, and all contact will be routed through the attorney's office going forward.

February 7, 2025
Reviewed the police report, which places the claimant's vehicle at the scene and lists the other driver as cited for failing to yield. Confirmed the claimant was present in the vehicle at the time of the collision.

February 24, 2025
Photos submitted by the insured show the impact area and confirm several of the damage details described in the initial report. No independent witnesses have come forward to date.

February 27, 2025
Inspected the vehicle with the repair estimator. The damage is largely consistent with the described impact direction and angle. Nothing in the inspection suggests prior damage to the same panels, and no earlier repairs were found on record.

March 14, 2025
Confirmed the driver is listed on the policy and that coverage was active on the date of loss. Found nothing indicating the damage predates the start of coverage.

March 31, 2025
Claimant reports neck pain and stiffness following the collision and has been seen by a treating physician. The reported injury fits well with the force and type of impact shown in the photos and the estimate.

April 15, 2025
Medical records reviewed. Claimant has a past history of a minor strain in the same region several years ago, which resolved fully with no lasting limitation noted in the file.

May 8, 2025
Treatment has continued somewhat longer than is typical for a cervical strain of this kind. Requested updated treatment notes and therapy attendance records from the provider through counsel.

June 7, 2025
Spoke with the claimant on two occasions. The account of how the collision happened has stayed the same in each conversation, with no material differences in sequnece or description.

July 31, 2025
Received the requested treatment records and the repair estimate. Reviewed both against the police report and photos and noted the findings for the file. Medical bills are being reviewed for reasonableness.

August 22, 2025
File remains open pending receipt of the final treatment summary and the attorney's settlement demand. Next review scheduled once those documents are received.

Q: Thanks for taking the time to speak with me today. This recodred statement is about the collision you were involved in at the intersection in Sugar Land, Texas. Do you understand that this call is being recorded?

A: Yes, I understand. Go ahead.

Q: Can you walk me through what happened before the impact?

A: I was heading through the intersection on a green light, going about the speed limit. I had my lights on and I was paying attention to the cross traffic like I always do.

Q: What did you notice as you entered the intersection?

A: A dark sedan came from my right side. It didn't look like it was slowing down at all. I hit the brakes, but it was too late, and it hit the driver's side of my car.

Q: Did you see a signal for the other vehicle?

A: I think it had a red light, but I can't say for certain. I was focused on my own light.

Q: Where did your vehicle end up after the collision?

A: It rolled a little bit and stopped against the curb on the far side of the intersection. The airbags on my side went off.

Q: Did you seek medical attention?

A: Yes. A paramedic checked me at the scene, and I went to an urgent care clinic later that evening. They diagnosed a neck strain and told me to rest and take anti-inflammatory medication.

Q: How are you feeling today?

A: My neck is still stiff, especially when I turn my head to check my blind spots. I've been doing the exercises the clinic gave me, and it's slowly getting better.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add to your account?

A: Just that I was driving carefully and I'm willing to provide any records you need.

Q: Thank you. That concludes the statement.

A: Thank you.
