Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was stopped at a red light on a main road in Pasadena, Texas, when the car behind me hit my rear bumper hard enough to push my vehicle forward into the intersection. I stayed in my seat for a moment, then got out to check on the other driver, who semeed fine. My right knee struck the dashboard during the impact, and by the time I reached the curb it was swollen and painful to bend. I want to be clear that I am the policyholder named on this policy and that I was the one driving. Since that first statement, I have remembered a few smaller details, such as the exact order of the cars and where the traffic was backed up, but my core account of how the collision happened has not changed.
