Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving in the right lane on a busy road in Sugar Land, Texas, and signaled before moving left to change lanes. As I started to merge, a vheicle in the left lane came alongside me and its side scraped the front quarter panel of my car, pushing me slightly toward the median before we both stopped. I pulled onto the shoulder and exchanged information with the other driver. Since the collision, I have had neck pain and stiffness that I believe is whiplash, and I have been seeing a doctor for treatment. When I have been asked to recall further details since first reporting the incident, I have added some small points, but the core account of what happened has not changed. I am a household member of the policyholder, who is my family member and with whom I live, and I am submitting this statement as a covered driver under that policy.
