Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving home on a weekday afternoon when the car in front of me stopped suddenly, and I could not avoid hitting it head-on. We were both moving slowly, so the impact was minor, but my head snapped forward and back against the seat. Over the next day I developed stiffness in my neck and a dull ache across my lower back. I went to a clinic the following morning, where I was told I had muscle strain. I have been careful to describe the collision the same way each time I have been asked about it, though I have remembered a few small details since then, such as the color of the other vehicle's bumper. As the named driver on this policy, I am submitting this account for review and am happy to provide any further information needed.
