Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving through the intersection in League City, Texas, when another vehicle entered from the side and struck the passenger door of my car. The impact was hard enough to jolt me against the seatbelt, and I felt a sharp pain in my lower back almost immediately. I was not the policyholder on this vehicle, and I do not live with the person who holds the policy, but I was driving it with permission on the day in question. When I spoke with the adjuster afterward, I recalled a few more small details, such as the color of the other car's signal light and where the traffic was stopped, but the core of what happened stayed exactly the same as my first account. I have been seeing a doctor for the strain and following the treatment plan I was given.
