Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving through the intersection in Pasadena, Texas, when a vehicle coming from my right struck the side of my car. The impact pushed my car sideways and I felt a sharp pain in my left shoulder right away. I stayed at the scene until the police arrived and gave them my account. Afterward I remembered a few smaller details, such as the other car's speed and the color of the traffic light, and I told the adjuster about them when I was asked. Apart from those added points, my description of what happened has not changed. I am listed as a member of the policyholder's household and I live at the same address, so I am submtiting this claim as a covered household driver.
