Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was making a left turn at an intersection in Houston, Texas, when another vehicle struck the side of my car. I had the green light and was moving slowly through the turn when the impact threw me against the door and the seatbelt. Since then I have had pain in my right shoulder that limits how far I can lift my arm. I have described what happened the same way to the officer at the scene, to the adjuster, and to my doctor. I should also state that I was not the named driver on this policy and that the named driver is listed as someone who may not operate this vehicle. I was driving the car at the time of the collision. I am providing this account so the claim can be reviewed, and I will supply any records or photographs that would help confirm these details.
