17 Jun 2023
Claim opened today for a left-turn collision at an intersection. The insured's vehicle was struck while turning, and the claimant reports a back injury from the impact.

6 Jul 2023
Spoke with the insured, who confirms the driver is named on the policy and was operating the vehicle at the time of the loss. Coverage verification is underway.

7 Jul 2023
Police report obtained. It places the claimant in the vehicle at the scene and records the collision as described by the parties.

24 Jul 2023
Statements taken from two independent witnesses. Both describe the other vehicle turning across the path of the insured and confirm the sequence of events.

13 Aug 2023
Photos from the scene and the other driver's account match the damage pattern on both vehicles. The impact location is consistent with a left-turn collision.

10 Sep 2023
Reviewed the vehicle's prior records. No earlier damage to the vehicle appears in the file, and nothing suggests the damage predates the policy start.

19 Sep 2023
Claimant is now represented by counsel. Requested medical records and prior treatment history through the attorney's office.

Medical records received. The reported back strain is a plausible injury for a collision of this type. No earlier injury to the same body area appears in the records reviewed.

Claimant gave a follow-up interview with some additional details about the moments before and after impact. The core account remains the same as the original report.

10 Nov 2023
Treatment has cotninued somewhat longer than is typical for a strain of this kind. Requested an updated treatment plan and provider notes to confirm the course of care.

9 Jan 2024
File reviewed. Witness statements, photos, police findings and the damage evaluation are consistent with the reported event, and the claim remains open pending the treatment update.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1326
Statement of:	Patricia Waller
Taken by:	Valerie Rodriguez
Date:	18 Jun 2023

Q: Thank you for agreeing to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just be called the cliamant on this, if that's alright. I'm the one who was drivnig the car.

Q: That works. Can you tell me where the collision happened?

A: It was at an intersection in League City, Texas. I was making a left turn across the road to get into a shopping center parking lot.

Q: What were the trafifc conditions when you started your turn?

A: It was fairly light. The light had just turned yellow, I think, when I started through. I was going slow, maybe ten miles an hour, because I was waiting for a gap.

Q: Did you see the other vehicle before you turned?

A: I saw headlights coming, but they seemed far enough away. I thought I had time. Looking back, I probably misjudged the distance.

Q: Where did the impact occur on your vehicle?

A: On the front driver's side, near the door. The other car hit the side of mine as I was almost across.

Q: Did you feel any pain at the scene?

A: Not right away. I was shaken up, but I thought I was fine. By the next morning my lwoer back was really stiff and sore, and it has been hurting when I sit or lift anything.

Q: Have you seen a doctor for it?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care two days later. They diagnosed a back strain and gave me muslce relaxers and told me to rest and do some stretches.

Q: Are you still having symptoms now?

A: Yes, less than before, but I still get aching when I've been driving for a while.

Q: Thank you. Is there anything else you want to add to your statement?

A: Only that I'm sorry the accident happened, and I'm willing to cooperate with whatever you need.

Q: Thank you for your time. This concludes the statement.
