Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving home on a weekday afternoon when the car in front of me stopped short, and I was not able to avoid hitting it head-on at a low speed. Both vehicles were moving slowly, but the impact pushed my body forward and back, and I felt a sharp pain in my right shoulder right away. I stayed at the scene until the other driver and I exchanged information, and I have been careful to describe the same sequence each time I have been asked about it. Since then I have remembered a few smaller points, like the sound of the brakes and where the other car came to rest, but these are additions to what I first reported, not changes to it. I am listed as a household member of the policyholder, and I live in the same home, which is why I am submittnig this account under that coverage.
