Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving through Conroe, Texas, at low speed when the car in front of me stopped suddenly, and I could not avoid a head-on collision with the veihcle coming toward me in the opposite lane. The impact was gentle enough that I did not think much of it at first, but within the hour my left wrist had swelled badly and I could barely move my fingers. An X-ray at the emergency room showed a fracture, and I have been wearing a cast since. Looking back, I remember a few more details than I did at the scene, such as the position of the other car's headlights, but the core of what happened has not changed in any way since I first described it. I am the named driver on this policy, and I am providing this account so my claim can be processed.
