Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1374
Claimant:	Amber Nelson
Adjuster:	Alison Sweeney

May 16, 2023
Claim opened for a collision in a parking lot. The insured driver is named on the policy, and the claimant is represented by counsel, so all contact will go through the lawyer's office.

May 30, 2023
Police report places the claimant in the vehicle at the time of the crash. Photos taken at the scene show the damage, and the vehicle damage is consistent with the impact described. No independent witness saw the collision itself.

June 18, 2023
Claimant reports a concussion from the impact. The injury fits the kind and force of a crash like this. No earlier injury to the same body area is knwon from prior records.

July 28, 2023
Initial account from the claimant is recorded and runs consistent with the police report. Some small details were added in a later conversation, but the core account has not changed.

August 2, 2023
A neighbor mentioned seeing the car with damage several weeks before the claimed loss date. This has not been confirmed, and I have asked for any repair or prior-damage records on the vehicle. None are known to exist so far.

August 26, 2023
Treatment followed a usual course, with follow-up visits tapering off as the claimnat improved. The medical notes match the timeline of the reported symptoms.

September 25, 2023
Claim file reviewed with the supervisor. Liability and injury facts are being evaluated in light of the neighbor's comment, and the open item is obtaining any prior repair history for the vehicle before a decision is made.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1374
Statement of:	Amber Nelson
Taken by:	Alison Sweeney
Date:	May 15, 2023

Q: Thanks for taking the time to speak with me today. This recorded statement concerns the parking lot collision you reported in Sugar Land. Before we begin, do you consent to this call bieng recorded?

A: Yes, that's fine.

Q: Could you describe where you were when the collision happened?

A: I was backing out of a parking space near the entrance of the shopping center. It was a busy afternoon, and I was looking for a gap in traffic.

Q: What happened as you were backing up?

A: I felt a bump on the passenger side of my car. I stopped right away. The other vehicle was coming through the aisle, and I didn't see it until the impact.

Q: How fast were you moving at the time?

A: Slowly, maybe walking pace. I'd only just started to reverse.

Q: Did you or anyone else get out of the vehicles?

A: The other driver got out and came over. I stayed in my seat for a few minutes because my head was pounding and I felt dizzy.

Q: Have you been seen by a medical provider since the collision?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care that evening. They said I had a concussion. I've been told to rest, avoid screens for long periods, and not drive much while my symptoms settle.

Q: How are you feeling right now?

A: Better than the first few days, but I still get headaches and sometimes I lose my train of thought. Bright light bothers me.

Q: Is there anything else you'd like to add to your statement?

A: Only that I want to cooperate fully. I've kept the urgent care paperwork and I can send it to you.

Q: Thank you. We'll follow up once we've reviewed the documents. That concludes the statement.
