Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was changing lanes on a busy stretch of road in Houston, Texas, when a vehicle in the adjoining lane drifted over and sideswiped the passenger side of my car. I had checked my mirrros and signaled before moving over, and the impact came as a hard shove that spun my steering wehel in my hands. I pulled onto the shoulder and stayed in the car until the officer arrived. Since the collision I have been dealing with stiffness and pain in my neck and lower back, and my doctor has advised rest and physical therapy. I am the named driver on the policy, and I am giving this account as accurately as I can recall it. I may remember some details differently as time passes, and I will update the claim if I do.
