Q: Thank you for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd ratehr just be referred to as the claimant for this, if that's okay.

Q: That's fine. Can you tell me where you were when the collision happened?

A: I was stopped at a light on a main road in Pasadena, Texas, waiting to turn left.

Q: What happened next?

A: I felt a hard jolt from behind. The car behind me didn't stop in time and hit my rear bumper pretty solidly.

Q: Were you able to move your vehicle after the impact?

A: Yes, I pulled over to the shoulder. The car was drivable but the back end was crushed.

Q: Did you speak with the other driver?

A: Briefly. He said he looked down at his phone for a second and didn't see the light change to red in time.

Q: Did you seek medical attention?

A: Yes, that evening. My neck was stiff, but the bigger problem is my right shoulder. It hurts when I lift anything above my head.

Q: Have you been treated since then?

A: I've had two visits so far and I'm doing some physical therapy. The doctor said it could take several weeks to improve.

Q: Have you missed any work because of the injury?

A: A few days, yes. My job involves a lot of lifting, so I've had to limit my duties.

Q: Is there anything else you think I should know?

A: Just that I've been careful about following the treatment plan, and I'm hoping to get back to normal soon.

Q: Thank you. That concludes the statement.
