Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving slowly through a parking area in Katy, Texas, when the car in front of me stopped suddenly and I could not avoid a low-speed head-on collision. Both vehicles were moving at a crawl, but the impact was enough to jolt me forward and twist my right knee against the dashboard. I am the named driver on this policy and I reported the incident at the scene. When I spoke with the adjuster afterward, I recalled a few extra details I had not mentioned at first, such as the position of the other car's headlights and the sound of the brakes, but the core sequence of events remained exactly as I first described it. My knee became swollen and painful within the hour, and I have since been seen by a doctor for treatment.
