Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1431
Claimant:	Michael Townsend
Adjuster:	Chelsea Hebert

July 5, 2025
Claim reported by the insured's counsel after a sideswipe that occurred while the insured was changing lanes. Injury described as neck and back strain. Initial file opened and all further contact to be rouetd through counsel.

July 8, 2025
Reviewed the insured's policy and confirmed the driver involved is named on it. Coverage was in force at the time of loss, and nothing in the file suggests the damage predates the policy start.

July 20, 2025
Obtained the police report, which places the claimant inside the vehicle at the scene and describes the lane-change contact between the two cars.

July 28, 2025
Took the recorded statement from the claimant through counsel. The account of how the collision happened matched the first report in every detail.

August 20, 2025
Spoke with the other driver, who independently described the same lane change and contact between the vehicles. Their account agrees with the claimant's.

August 31, 2025
Reviewed the scene photographs and two witness statements. Both witnesses and the images are consistent with the sideswipe as described.

September 6, 2025
Inspected the claimant's vehicle. The damage pattern along the side panels lines up with the impact described, and no earlier damage to the vehicle is known from prior claims or records.

September 30, 2025
Received the medical records from the treating provider. The neck and back strain diagnosis fits the kind and force of a side impcat at this speed, and no prior injury to those body areas is on file.

November 9, 2025
Treatment followed a typical course of physical therapy and follow-up visits. The provider's notes show steady improvement, and the frequency of visits tapered as the claimant recovered.

November 14, 2025
Counsel confirmed the claimant has been attending the scheduled therapy and that the remaining symptoms are mild. Requested updated treatment notes to confirm the current status.

December 12, 2025
Reviewed the updated notes. Treatment has tapered to periodic check-ins, consistent with the expected recovery timeline for this type of strain.

January 4, 2026
File assessed as consistent across liability, damage, and injury sources. Recommend proceeding to evaluation of the bodily injury claim through counsel.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1431
Statement of:	Michael Townsend

Date:	June 1, 2025

Q: Good afternoon. This is the adjuster calling about the claim for the sideswipe accident in Sugar Land. Is this a good time to record a short statement?

A: Yes, that's fine.

Q: Thank you. Please state your full name for the recording.

A: [Claimant name]. Wait, I was asked not to use names, so I'll just say I'm the driver of the vehicle involved.

Q: Understood. Can you describe what happened when the collision occurred?

A: I was in the right lane on a multi-lane road in Sugar Land and wanted to move into the left lane to make a turn ahead. I checked my mirror and glanced over my shoulder. As I started to move over, another vehicle came up alongside me and its side scraped mine.

Q: Did you see that vehicle before you began changing lanes?

A: Not clearly. It was in a blind spot, and I didn't notice it until I felt the contact.

Q: Where did the contact happen on your vehicle?

A: Along the passenger side, toward the rear door and the back quarter panel.

Q: Did you stop after the contact?

A: Yes, I pulled onto the shoulder and waited. The other driver stopped as well, and we exchanged information.

Q: How are you feeling since the accident?

A: My neck is stiff and sore, and my lower back aches, especially when I sit for a long time. I saw a doctor the following day and was told it looks like a strain.

Q: Have you missed any work or been limited in daily activities?

A: I've had to take a few days off and I avoid lifting anything heavy. Sleeping has been uncomfortable.

Q: Thank you. Is there anyhting you'd like to add before we finish?

A: No, I think that covers it. I'll send over the medical paperwork when I have it.

Q: Thank you for your time. This concludes the statement.
