Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving through the intersectoin on a green light when a car coming from my left ran the red and struck the driver's side of my vehicle. The impact pushed my car sideways and I felt a sharp pain in my right shoulder as I held the wheel. I stayed at the scene until the police arrived and gave the same description of what happened to every person who asked, including the officer, the other driver, and the adjuster who later called me. I am the one who drives this vehicle most days, since I live in the same home as the policyholder and am listed on the policy as a household member. I have been seen by a doctor for the shoulder, and I am filing this claim so that the medical treatment and the repairs to the car can be covered under the policy.
