Claim Notes

Claim number:	C-1450
Claimant:	Crystal Yang
Adjuster:	Christopher Wong

February 11, 2025
Claim reported by phone. The claiamnt was driving a vehicle that struck another car while turning left at an intersection. The policy driver is the claimant, and the policy is in force.

February 14, 2025
Spoke with the claimant, who is not represented by an attorney. The account of the turn and the impact was clear and matched the first report.

February 15, 2025
Respnoding officer's report confirms the claimant was in the vehicle at the scene. The other driver's statement agrees on the left turn and the point of impact.

March 7, 2025
Photographs taken at the scene show damage to the front corner and driver side. Some details in the photos line up with the claimant's description, though the photos do not show the full sequence of events.

April 22, 2025
No independent witnesses to the collision have come forward. The only accounts so far are the claimant's, the other driver's, and the officer's observations at the scene.

May 9, 2025
Claimant reports neck and lower back pain following the impact and has beugn treatment. The reported injury is consistent with a collision of this type.

June 8, 2025
Medical records received. Treatment has continued somewhat longer than is typical for this kind of strain. No prior injury to the same area appears in the records or in the claimant's history.

June 15, 2025
No earlier damage to the vehicle is on file. A neighbor mentioned seeing the car with damage some weeks before the reported date, but has not provided details or a statement in writing.

June 30, 2025
Reviewed the damage estimate against the photos. It is not yet clear whether all of the listed damage resulted from this impact or whether some of it was there before. Requested a repair inspection.

July 15, 2025
Claimant has repeated the same account of the collision in each conversation, including the timing, the direction of travel, and the sequence of the turn.

September 7, 2025
File remains open pending the repair inspection, the complete medical records, and a decision on the neighbor's information. Next review is scheduled once those items are in.

Recorded Statement

Claim number:	C-1450
Statement of:	Crystal Yang
Taken by:	Christopher Wong
Date:	February 8, 2025

Q: Thanks for taking the time to give this recorded statement. Please state your full name for the record.

A: I'd rather just keep it to the accident, if that's okay.

Q: That's fine. I'll note the claimant's name is on file. Can you describe where you were when the collision happened?

A: I was driving through an intersection in Houston, making a left turn onto a side street.

Q: Which direction were you traveling before the turn?

A: I was heading north on a main road, and I was turning left toward a shopping center.

Q: What did you see as you began the turn?

A: There was an oncoming vehicle, and I thought it was far enough away. I started my turn and it came in pretty quickly.

Q: Did the light facing you show green, yellow, or red?

A: It was green for me. I think it had been green for a few seconds.

Q: How fast were you going when you started the turn?

A: Not fast. I was slowing down for the intersection, probably in the range of ten or fifteen miles an hour.

Q: Did the other driver's vehicle hit your car on the driver's side or passenger side?

A: It hit the front passenger side of my car, near the front wheel.

Q: Did you have any injuries at the scene?

A: My lower back hurt right away, and I had a stiff neck. I didn't think much of it at first.

Q: Have you sought medical care since the accident?

A: Yes, I went to urgent care the same day, and they told me I had a back strain. I've been doing physical therapy twice a week.

Q: Are you currently working?

A: I'm on light duty for now. Sitting for long periods makes the pain worse.

Q: Is there anything you'd like to add or correct in your statement?

A: No, I think that covers it. I'm just hoping this gets resolved so I can get back to normal.

Q: Thank you. This concludes the recorded statement.
