Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving home along the main road when the car in front of me stopped suddenly, and I braked as hard as I could. The vehicle coming the other way crossed into my lane, and we collided head-on. The impact was not very fast, but it was enough to throw everyone in my car forward and back. My passengers and I all felt pain in our necks, shoulders, and chests, and one of them hit their head on the window frame. We were shaken and could barely get out of the vehicle. The accident happened on September 23, 2024 near Pearland, at about the time of evening rush hour, and the road was wet. Paramedics came to the scene and took everyone to hospital for checks. I have kept copies of all the medical reports and photographs I took at the scene.
