Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was backing out of a parking space at a shopping cetner in Houston, Texas, moving slolwy with my headlights on, when the other vehicle came through the lane behind me and our bumpers met. Neither of us was going fast. I stopped right away, got out, and spoke with the other driver, who agreed the impact was minor. Afterward I felt a stiff, aching pain in my neck, which I reported the same day to my doctor, who diagnosed a neck strain. I have since remembered a few small details, such as the position of a shopping cart near the curb, but the core of my account has not changed from what I first described. I am the named driver on this policy and I am submitting this statement in full.
