Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was changing lanes on a busy stretch of road in Houston, Texas, checking my mirror and signaling as I moved over, when a car in the lane I was entering drifted into the side of my vehicle. There was a loud scrape, both cars were pushed slightly apart, and I pulled onto the shoulder right away. My neck snapped forward and back, and by the next morning I had stiffness and pain that made it hard to turn my head. I have been seeing a doctor for whiplash since then. When I have been asked about the event since, I have added a few small details I remembered later, such as the color of the other car's headlights, but the core account of what happened has not changed. I am the named driver on the policy for the vehicle involved, and I am submitting this statement in good faith.
