Officer's narrative

Officers responded to a two-vehicle collision on a Houston, Texas roadway where Driver 1 was changing lanes and made contact with the side of Driver 2's vehicle. Driver 1 was operating the vehicle and was identified as the named insured on the policy. A Passenger was also present in the vehicle and was confirmed at the scene by officers and independent witnesses. Driver 1 reported neck pain and stiffness consistent with whiplash. Based on the direction of impact and the vehicles' speeds, the reported injury appears consistent with the kind and force of this collision. Witnesses, scene photographs, and Driver 2 each gave accounts that matched the sequence of events described by Driver 1. Officers observed no indication that the vehilce had sustained prior damage, and none is known from records reviewed. Damage observed on the vehicles was visible along the side panels, but it remains unclear whether all of the damage recorded resulted from this single impact and further inspection will be needed to determine that question.
