Description of the accident (claimant's words)

I was driving home on a weekday afetrnoon when the car in front of me stopped suddenly, and I braked as hard as I could. The vehicle coming the other way crossed into my lane and we collided head-on, though we were both moving slowly when it happened. Airbags did not deploy, and I got out of the car on my own. Within an hour I began to feel stiffness across my neck and a dull ache low in my back, which has continued since. I have described these events the same way to the officer at the scene, to the medical staff who saw me, and to the adjuster who contacted me afterward. I am the named driver on this policy and I have no other vehicles involved in this matter. I am submitting this account so my injuries and the damage to my car can be reviewed.
